

LIGHTNING STROKE PROVES FATAL TO MR. JOHN FARROW

Inmate of County Infirmary Died Monday Night From Fractured Skull Received When Struck By Lightning Saturday Afternoon.

John Farrow, 60 years of age, an inmate of the County Infirmary, died at that institution about 9 o'clock Monday evening from a fractured skull received when struck by bolt of lightning late Saturday afternoon while standing beside a telephone pole in the infirmary lane.

Shortly after Mr. Farrow was struck Dr. C. McGuire, the institution's physician, examined him and at that time the physician gave it as his opinion that the man had no chance to recover from the stroke. He was able to live through Sunday and Monday, however, at noon Monday Dr. McGuire said that the man was dying and that nothing could save him.

It is nothing short of miraculous that he was able to live as long as he did being injured as he was. The stroke of lightning tore his straw hat into small particles and the top of his head was crushed while the hair had been singed upon his head. A colored man who was standing near him, was severely shocked but soon recovered.

Mr. Farrow was a member of a well known Mason county family and had been an inmate of the Infirmary for some time. He was a most likable man of large physique and an unusual constitution.

The body was removed to the home of Mrs. Sam Farrow in Front street and burial will be made at the old Farrow graveyard near Orangegburg at 10 o'clock Wednesday.

COME ACROSS.

September 1st we will place all accounts for collection. If you can't pay your bills now what do you expect to do when money gets to be worth something? We don't intend to pay a collector but expect you to pay the court if you are worth the costs.

OLD FASHIONED GRIND ORGAN.

For the first time in many years an old-fashioned grind organ was heard on the streets here Monday. The organ was in charge of an old couple who were begging and they gathered in quite a neat sum. The old organ brought back memories of other years to many of the older citizens.

WILL ORGANIZE CALF CLUBS IN THIS COUNTY

State Cattle Experts To Assist Local Organizers in Putting on Foot Several Calf Clubs.

Prof. J. J. Hooper, head of the Department of Dairying of Kentucky State University, and Mr. E. M. Pritchett, cattle expert of the State Experiment Station, arrived in Maysville this morning and will spend the balance of the week in Mason county assisting County Agent George Kirk and Assistant County Agent John Hurst Adams in organizing Calf Clubs throughout the county.

It is hoped that the young farmers of Mason county can be interested in raising pure bred calves during this fall and winter and arrangements will probably be made for a big auction sale of the calves next spring in Maysville. It is the purpose of those at the head of the organization to have several organizations throughout the county similar to the Calf Club organized here some time ago by the First Standard Bank.

Already several clubs of various kinds have been organized in the county through the efforts of Assistant County Agent John Hurst Adams, who has practically all of his attention this summer to Club Work. It is expected therefore, that the youngsters will understand the Club idea and that little trouble will be experienced in getting many members to the new Calf Clubs.

YOUNG MEN RELEASED.

The two young men taken in charge by the police yesterday afternoon at the wreck of a C. & O. freight train, it being thought that they had "angled" the train and caused the wreck, were released in a short time after an investigation disclosed that the air was applied suddenly because of a break in the air hose near the engine.

POPULATION IS INCREASED.

Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Rogers are the parents of a fine daughter. Mr. and Mrs. Thornton List are the parents of a new daughter, and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Foley, of the county, are rejoicing over the arrival of a fine baby boy.

NOTICE.

I will sell at public auction Thursday, August 12th, at 2 p. m., at No. 707 Forest avenue, the personal property of Mrs. Dimmie Curry, deceased.

YAZELL IS WINNER IN CONGRESSIONAL NOMINATION FIGHT

State Cattle Experts To Assist Local Organizers in Putting on Foot Several Calf Clubs.

Given By Democratic Vice Presidential Nominee in His Acceptance Address Monday Afternoon.

Hyde Park, N. J., August 10.—The prologue to one of the most engrossing presidential campaigns in the history of the United States was ended Monday with the delivery by Franklin D. Roosevelt of his address accepting the Democratic nomination for the Vice Presidency.

Attired in a blue serge suit, lighted up by a cornflower and a pansy in his buttonhole, Mr. Roosevelt, who until Friday was Assistant Secretary of the Navy, told several thousand listeners that the League of Nations was the paramount issue of the presidential campaign, according to the lights of the Democratic party.

Mr. Roosevelt spoke from the veranda of "Springwood," his Hyde Park home. He stood on a small rotunda supported by Doric pillars, colonial style. His manuscript rested on a music stand. On the veranda sat members of his family, friends and political associates.

Mr. Roosevelt told his hearers that the country faced two problems, one internal and one external. The nominee rephrased and gave a new emphasis to all President Wilson's arguments for the League of Nations. He declared that a man who could see no reason for reform in the nation's international outlook necessarily should be a reactionary in affairs at home.

NOTICE.

SERVED WITH HIM.

Democrats think they are prejudicing the Republican cause by alleging that Harding was picked for the nomination by a group of U. S. Senators. That will scarcely hurt Harding in the public mind. Senators are now chosen by the people and many of them were also sent as delegates to the convention. Harding must be a man of tact as well as ability in order to win the confidence of his associate in the Senate.

KNOCKED GROGGY.

Former Justice Hughes wonders if "constitutional government as heretofore maintained in this republic could survive another great war even victoriously waged." Mr. Hughes was referring to the continued use of emergency war powers by the administration long after the war has ceased, and the danger to our institutions which autocracy holds.

HAD DEAD LINES TO ESCAPE VIOLENT KISSES

Los Angeles, Calif. — Because her husband, Gordon B. Edwards, showered too many kisses upon her, Mrs. Mabel D. Edwards established dead lines. In Judge Crail's court, where she asked for a divorce, she complained that her husband wanted to kiss her at any and all times. If she was washing dishes or sweeping the floor, he said, he would throw his arms around her and kiss her violently.

Mr. Edwards told the story of the dead line. He said his wife established dead lines all over the house.

"She told me if I crossed the dead line she would leave me. She established a dead line around her where she sat at the table. She had a dead line in the bed," he said.

Mr. Edwards was granted the decree on his cross complaint on the ground of desertion.

Sale of a Good Farm
At Public Auction--Easy Terms
MONDAY, AUGUST 16, 1920

On Monday, August 16, 1920, at 1 o'clock p. m., I will offer at public auction on the premises on the Jersey Ridge Pike about 1½ miles from the city of Maysville, the farm known as the John Mackey home, consisting of 134 acres 1 rood 12 poles, more or less, and the same described in the deed of John Mackey to Elizabeth Mackey, Deed Book 119, Page 225, records of the Clerk of the Mason County Court to which reference is now made for a definite description.

This farm is located on a good turnpike within a few minutes drive of Maysville, is beautifully situated, and was used for many years as a dairy farm. More than one hundred acres being now in grass. It is improved with a good dwelling house, splendidly located, good tobacco barn and other buildings and in a high state of cultivation and has now growing on it about five acres of tobacco and ten to twelve acres of corn, one-half of which goes to the landlord.

Absolute possession of this farm will be given on or about September 1st, 1920, when deed is made and the terms of the sale are complied with. The purchaser to get the landlord's one-half interest in the growing crops.

The terms of the sale are twenty-five per cent, or one-fourth of the purchase price cash upon the execution of the deed and giving of absolute possession on or about September 1st, 1920, ten per cent, or one-tenth of the purchase price on March 1st, 1921, and the remainder in six equal annual payments, all deferred payments to bear interest at the rate of six per cent, per annum payable semi-annually from September 1st, 1920. The purchaser will have option to pay all cash, or execute notes for shorter periods should he desire. A lien will be retained on the property to secure the deferred purchase money, with the usual conditions as to default and insurance. Seller will pay all taxes accruing before January 1st, 1920, and purchaser pay taxes accruing thereafter.

Catarrhal Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is no way to reach the internal ear, and that is by a constitutional remedy.

Catarrhal Deafness is caused by an inflammation of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or impulsive noise in the ear, and when it is closed, Deafness is the result. Unless the inflammation can be reduced and the tube restored to its normal condition, hearing cannot be restored forever. Many cases of deafness are caused by catarrh, which is an inflammation of the mucous membranes.

FIX "DEAD LINE" FOR THEIR FOES

Outlaws Fighting Cattle King in "The Flame of Hellgate" Establish Zone of War.

Just as the pile of New York city long have maintained a "dead line" south of which no "crook" is allowed to go, so, in "The Flame of Hellgate," the Robertson-Cole Superior picture in which Beatriz Michelena will be seen at the Pastime Wednesday, a bold outlaw queen establishes "Dead Line" above which none of the cattle king's men can come.

Her father has been murdered by the cattle king's forces, and she has decided that if there is to be any such royalty in America as "kings" she will "queen it" a little herself. So she and her men establish a large sign on the side of the mountain, saying: "No Trespassing—The Dead Line." Beside this sign stands a guard day and night. So carefully he watch, and so skillfully do the followers of the outlaw queen fight that the cattle king is worried.

The sheriff who has obtained his office through the influence of the cattle king and who, in turn, is supposed to gratify every whim of the "king" decides that he will go up single-handed and capture the outlaw chief, and his band. He gets as far as "The Dead Line." There an unusual fate befalls him and he is sent back to the village on his horse, tied hand and foot.

This gives a slight idea of the action and atmosphere of "The Flame of Hellgate" which ends in one of the most tremendous gun battles ever put on the screen, a battle fought high up in the mountains with the entire forces of the cattle king opposing the outlaw queen and her men, firmly fortified inside their fastness.

Miss Nellie Hooper will leave for Indianapolis tomorrow after spending two weeks with her mother, Mrs. Chas. Hooper of the West End.

Lowell, Mass.—"I was all rundown and had an awful pain in my right side, was persistently constipated and had very dizzy spells. I suffered for three years and was perfectly miserable until a friend was telling me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I found it a wonderful medicine. I can now do twice as much work and I recommend the Vegetable Compound to other women. You can use these facts as a testimonial!"—Mrs. M. TEALL BESSEY, 46 Chestnut St., Lowell, Mass.

Why women will continue to suffer so long is more than we can understand, when they can find health in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound!

For forty years it has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has restored the health of thousands of women who have been troubled with such ailments as displacements, inflammation, ulceration, irregularities, etc.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential), Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

Buenos Aires.—The use of gliders for transporting passengers and mail on some of the swift and shallow rivers of Argentina may result from a trial undertaken on the authority of the minister of public works. On the trial trip just made on the Bermejo river it was shown that a passage which commonly occupies ten to fifteen days by the ordinary steamer could be made regularly with a glider in about ten hours, providing no stops were made. These gliders are a French invention making use of the flying principle for navigation on the surface of rivers.

FLIES IMPERIAL GERMAN FLAG IN AMERICAN PORT.

Philadelphia, Pa.—Lying at anchor in the waters of the Delaware near Petts Island is the German bark Reitherstieg, which, though technically within enemy territory, defiantly flies the flag of the old imperial German government.

Its captain, Wilhelm Westphal, asserts the red, black and gold, the colors of the new Socialist government in his country, will never flag in the breezes from the masthead of his ship so long as he has anything to say about it.

"Those vertical blocks of red, white and black stand for order, loyalty, and a proud record of seamanship," he said, as he gazed at the flag overhead. "The new flag means chaos, hunger, and misery."

The German ship is loading a cargo of oil at the island, but it is taking on other cargo that is far more precious than oil, or even than gold, to many of the "fatherland." This is not being stored in the regular place provided but in the quarters of the crew and in parts occupied by the sand ballast when the vessel arrived here.

This extra cargo consists of food, clothing, and other necessities, and will make of it a veritable treasure ship, members of the crew say, to hungry and ragged human beings in Germany.

TOBACCO ACREAGE
SHORT SAYS REPORT.

The Cleveland Federal Reserve bank's monthly business review says: Less tobacco has been planted in the South this year, owing mainly to the shortage of labor. According to E. C. Westbrook, tobacco expert of the Georgia State Agricultural College, Georgia has only about two-thirds as many acres planted as in 1919. South Carolina has only about 60 per cent. of last year's acreage, while there has been only a slight increase in North Carolina.

EXPRESSMEN GET BIG SALARY BOOST.

Chicago, August 10.—The United States Railway Labor board today handed down a decision increasing wages of the employees of the American Railway Express company $30,000,000 yearly. Eighty thousand men not provided for by the recent $600,000,000 railway wage award are affected.

The award is retroactive to May 1, 1920, and amounts to 16 cents an hour. It will give messengers and other train service employees an increase of $38.40 a month. All other employees will receive an increase of $32.64.

ANOTHER CHANGE IN C. & O. LOCAL FREIGHTS.

TELEPHONE OPERATORS NEW WAGE SCALE IS PRESENTED

Increase of Approximately $1200 Per Year Is Granted By Maysville Telephone Company to Operators.

The Maysville Telephone Company has arranged its new wage scale for telephone operators and has an increase. So far as is known the new scale is perfectly satisfactory to the present employees and no trouble will be anticipated.

The new wage scale provides a wage of from $30 to $50 per month for local operators, night operators and long distance operators with a salary of $60 per month for Chief Operators. The new operator will be started at a salary of $30 and her salary will be increased according to the length of time she remains employed by the company until she shall have reached the maximum salary of $50 per month.

The old wage scale ran from $25 to $40 per month along the same basis and Chief Operators, under the old scale, received a salary of $50 per month.

Operators will be expected to work eight hours in twentyfour and will be given Sundays off under an arrangement.

CAMPMEETING BOARD REVIEWS YEAR AND PLANS FOR NEXT

Attendance This Year Was Not Up to Last But Camp Was Big Success—

Plans Made For New Building.

Those who attended Ruggles Campmeeting and a great number of people who observe with deep interest the progress of the campmeeting will be interested in the action of the Board of Directors at their meeting held Monday morning to wind up the business of the meeting.

Because of so much rain, coming as it did on both Saturdays, the attendance was not quite up to last year which was the banner year. But the board was greatly pleased at the outcome under the circumstances. The fact that in every other way the meetings were the most successful for years and that everyone who attended is arranging to attend again next year, gives the board great satisfaction.

The chief of police Col. W. D. Hendrickson reported that the order was the best ever had. If there was one drop of anything with a "kick in it" he failed to discover it. Time was when it required at least ten policemen to keep order on Sundays. Only two are used now and all they have to do is to watch the automobile parking.

The increase in automobile traveling has become so great that the board realizes that some regulations must be adopted to insure the safety to the crowds that attend, also for automobile owners. A committee was appointed to draft a rule to cover the needs and to report at the Spring meeting of the board. It was the sense of the board that all automobiles should be excluded from the inner part of the campus just as they are now on Sundays. In order to secure owners of machines the auto park will be made secure by having a day and night watchman. A specially low price for parking will be made for campers.

The holding of Sunday parties, picnics and frolics of any kind between campmeetings was ruled against by the board. It was the feeling of the board that such gatherings were out of harmony with the purpose of the campgrounds and bring criticism of the management for permitting such doings on the grounds consecrated to the cause of God. To ward off such visitors a large warning sign will be placed at each gate, and the ground-keeper who is sworn police officer, instructed to arrest any who violate the rules of the association.

Mr. Joseph P. Warder was re-elected to the position of Ground Keeper.

A letter expressing the hearty appreciation of the Board of Directors for the splendid service rendered by Revs. Hubert Humble and H. H. Miller as evangelists, Rev. T. B. Ashley as chorister, Rev. F. W. Harrop as leader of the young people's meeting, J. Robert Currey, as accompanist, Miss Virginia Hurd as instructor of the children and Superintendents Literal and Davenport for the part each contributed to the success of the meetings. The Board felt that the combination of talent this year was superior to any they had ever had before. It is very probable that the most if not all this talent will be secured again for next year if possible.

Rev. W. S. Peters and Mr. J. H. Richardson were appointed to act with the district superintendents in securing talent for next year, they to report at the spring meeting.

Rev. Peters and Mr. Richardson were also continued as the publicity committee of the board.

A new service may be introduced at next campmeeting. For a long time many have felt that there should be something on the order of a "Workers' Conference" or "School of Methods" for Sunday school workers. The secretary was instructed to get in touch with the Board of Sunday Schools at Chicago and have them send a Sunday school expert to the campmeeting next year to conduct such a meeting. This will no doubt prove a most popular move on the part of the Board. And it will be an unexpected opportunity for Sunday school workers to receive expert instruction.

The committee located a place for the new building to be erected next spring. It will be placed between the Kentucky Home and the Auto Park. Already there are applications for rooms in this new home.

The prominence given to campmeeting news by Maysville's newspapers was especially commended. The Board is a firm believer in publicity, especially through the medium of the newspaper.

Through the kindness of one of Ruggles' best friends and supporters, Rev. F. W. Harrop, the campmeeting will receive a new Individual Communion Service for use by the time of the next campmeeting.

The hotel will receive special attention before next year. It is the purpose of the Board to furnish each of the rooms, making them so desirable that most fastidious may feel that it is a good place to stay.
